‘SUPERBUNNY’S PIRATE VACATION’ (Friday through Sunday) And you thought only parrots hung out with pirates. In this new musical, based on a book series by Amber L. Spradlin, Superbunny encounters the buccaneers while he’s trying to save the polluted and trash-filled waters off a tropical island. (He’s a bit of an eco-warrior as well as a superhero.) This busy bunny’s adventures — which also involve the audience members, who can sing along in a number with the pirates — are brought to the stage by the appropriately named Rabbit Hole Theatricks. The production has a book and lyrics by Michael MacKenzie Wills and music by Alastair William King. Free performances are on Friday at 11 a.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m.; the Actors Fund Arts Center, 160 Schermerhorn Street, between Smith and Hoyt Streets, Boerum Hill, Brooklyn, 917-563-9830, rabbitholetheatricks.org.
